

Kathy Clowes

FRONT ROYAL PREGNANCY CENTER

BIO

Kathy Clowes has been helping clients, women, children and couples at Front Royal Pregnancy Center since 1998. After eight years as a peer counselor, Kathy became Director in 2006. Prior to coming to Northern Virginia, Kathy advocated for women for 12 years in the Pacific Northwest. She oversees staff and volunteers each day.

Because she likes to see clients thrive, she regularly counsels clients in challenging circumstances. Kathy has an MS in Psychology, and a BS in Biology, She enjoys reading current research in health care.

Kathy has given talks in a dozen different countries on four continents with Human Life International.

Married to Brian Clowes, together they have seven adult children, all of whom are pro-life activists.
